GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS RAYALL TO PROFESSIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Gina Rayall of Durham to the Professional Advisory Committee.

Rayall is director of optical services at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Ophthalmology Department. She received her associate's degree in opticianry from Durham Technical Community College.

The committee advises the Commission for the Blind on matters concerning or pertaining to the procurement, use and rendering of professional services to the beneficiaries of the commission's aid and services. There are nine members on the board, each serving three-year terms. The governor appoints all members.
